Attention: The letters za and ra denote ḷ and ṛ, respectively, of Tamil. Also note that rza sounds almost like ṭra, rri like ṭri, and so on. The consonant-cluster nza is pronounced somewhere between nra and nḍra. It is, however, colloquially acceptable to pronounce the clusters rza and nza as tta and nna, respectively.
